

I plan to submit an entry (entries) to ALA 2010 Design Awards Program and will submit all materials by September 3, 2010 to:
ALA Headquarters • 22159 N. Pepper Road, Suite 2N • Barrington, IL 60010

Please mail my registration number(s), carrier sheets and official data sheets to:

Name _____
Company _____
Address _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____
Phone No. _____ Fax No. _____
E-mail _____

PROJECT ID BY NAME(S)

Number of entries _____ @ $100.00 per entry (ALA members) $ _____

Number of entries _____ @ $195.00 initial entry (non-ALA members: includes one year ALA membership) $ _____
$100.00 each additional entry

Make checks payable to ALA (Include check with form)

ALA Headquarters
22159 N. Pepper Road, Suite 2N
Barrington, IL 60010

Presort Std.
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
LaCrosse, WI 54601
Permit No. 149

Please Post

2010
Design
Awards
Program

Award winning entrants receive:

- Recognition by peers.
- Display of projects at the awards banquet.
- Architect's name and company used in press releases.
- Projects published in the "Licensed Architect" magazine.
- Award certificates for firms, owners, and contractors/developers.

August Battaglia

August Battaglia is the Design Director for FGM Architects. Since joining FGM in 1998, Augie's designs have been recognized locally and nationally by awards, publications, and exhibitions, including elevation to the AIA College of Fellows. He organizes solids and voids and uses color to create outstanding designs within conservative budgets celebrating the uniqueness of each client's project. Taught by outstanding architects, Augie has become an outstanding mentor. A graduate of the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, he received the 1988 UIUC Francis J. Plym Traveling Fellowship. Augie was named the 1991 AIA Chicago Young Architect of the Year.

Lynn Bichler, ALA

Lynn Bichler, ALA, is the principal of Lynn Bichler Architects located in Mequon, Wisconsin. Lynn is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee School of Architecture. Her firm specializes in private sector commercial and residential projects which include new homes and renovations, commercial automotive facilities, retail stores, manufacturing facilities, offices, and historic restoration projects. Lynn enjoys projects in which the design concept follows through seamlessly from the site to the building design, interior design, and graphic design. A favorite project of hers is the design of her office in a historic barn which is shared with her horses.

Garret Michael Eakin, Architect

Following taking degrees from Oklahoma State University(B Arch) and the University of Illinois(M Arch), Mr. Eakin worked for Skidmore Owings and Merrill and Perkins & Will in Chicago. Founding his private practice in 1980 he concentrated on residential, hospitality and institutional work. The 150+ completed projects have been widely published and received twenty-two design and preservation awards. His drawings have been included in numerous shows and exhibitions and included in the collection of The Art Institute of Chicago. Mr. Eakin is an Adjunct Professor in the AIADO Department at the School of the Art Institute. His ground breaking book Interior Architecture with co-author John Kurtich was published by Van Nostrand Reinhold, NY in 1993. The book has influenced a generation of architects and designers interested in integrating the two disciplines and is references in numerous design schools. Mr. Eakin currently is a Preservation Commissioner and in practice in Oak Park where he and his wife reside.

Howard M. Hirsch, ALA, AIA, LEED AP

Howard M. Hirsch founded Hirsch Associates, LLC in 1994 to offer Architectural and Planning Services to a wide range of clients on a variety of project types and is ultimately responsible for all aspects of the firm's operations and output. Howard is a very "hands on" principal, taking personal responsibility and providing an active role in all projects, whether large or small. He has designed numerous award winning and RFP selected projects and views the practice of architecture as a continuing education and learning process.

Matt Kramer, ALA

Matt Kramer, ALA founded MKA Design Studio in 1995 with the primary purpose of primarily focusing on places of worship while also continuing to offer quality professional services in other areas, specifically commercial buildings, single family residential homes, town homes and lofts. He is a graduate of the The School of the Art Institute of Chicago-Architecture, Painting, and Illustration, has a degree from Illinois Benedictine College Engineering program and is a Distinguished Graduate of the United States Army Corp of Engineers School in Fort Belvoir, VA. Matt has provided design services and on-site construction skills for Habitat for Humanity, was a member in the renovation of a Franciscan Shelter for the Homeless in Chicago as well as other community projects in Iowa, Washington and Chicago.

Association of Licensed Architects

2010 ALA Design Awards Program

PURPOSE

To give professional recognition, to excellence in Design by selecting award recipients whose work exhibits the creative and aesthetic characteristics deemed relevant by their peers and associates and to foster adoption of this quality by the general public.

ELIGIBILITY

All submittals must be completed works designed by ALA members.

Design awards are to be in the name of the firm, if a member of the firm is a member of ALA and a Principal of the firm. Otherwise, the award shall be given in the name of the Architect responsible for the design with the name of the members firm also shown.

No entry may be submitted which has previously won an ALA or ICARA Design Award.

AWARDS

Entries will be judged on their own merits based on:

- Program Solution
- Site and Space Planning
- Overall Design Solution
- Construction System and Details

Certificates will be presented in order that the Firm, Owner, Contractor and Developer may be recipients.

The following awards will be issued:

- Presidential Award (1)
- Gold Medal Award
- Silver Medal Award
- Award of Merit

CATEGORIES

Entries shall be labeled in one of the following categories:

1. Residential I - Single Family Homes
2. Residential II - Multi Family Homes, Apts
3. Commercial/Industrial
4. Renovation
5. Institutional
6. Religious
7. Unbuilt Design
8. Interior Architecture

JURY/JUDGING

The jury panel of five jurors will be composed of architects and other design professionals such as college professors, journalists, interior designers, etc. It will meet shortly after the submission deadline to evaluate and select the building projects to receive awards.

Decisions of the jury shall be final. None of the jury members may submit entries for judging or be associated with a firm submitting entries.

SUBMITTALS

Each entry must be submitted in the following manner.

1. Submit no less than one (1) or more than two (2) 20" X 20" boards, the composition of which shall be at the discretion of the entrant.
2. After Declaration of Intent, each participant will receive a detailed description of entry requirements by August 13th, 2010 to guide in the preparation of the boards. Minimum requirements will be enumerated along with accompanying information.
3. Boards and accompanying material must be received at ALA Headquarters by close of business on September 3rd, 2010.

AWARD WINNING ENTRIES

Award recipients will be requested to furnish additional photos or electronic versions for press releases and to display their boards at the Awards Banquet.

PRESENTATION OF AWARDS

Certificates will be presented to applicants at the 2010 Awards Presentation Dinner on Friday, November 12, 2010 at the Medinah Country Club in Medinah, Illinois. Clients are invited to attend along with entrants and guests. Additional certificates will be made available at the applicant's request, for a nominal fee of $35.00 each.

RELEASE, RETURN OF ENTRY, AND PUBLICITY

All entries are accepted with the explicit free right of publication, reproduction, and use by ALA and its sponsors without need for further approval. ALA shall not be responsible for protection of submission. Submissions may be picked up at the awards dinner or will be returned COD in their original containers.

SUBMISSION OF INTENT

The attached Declaration of Intent must be completed and returned with payment (postmarked no later than August 13th, 2010) to:

ALA Headquarters
22159 Pepper Road, Suite 2N
Barrington, IL 60010

Entry fees must accompany each entry as described below:

ALA Members: $100.00 per entry

Non-ALA Members: $195.00 for the first entry
(includes a one year ALA Membership)

Each additional entry: $100.00

Direct questions to ALA Headquarters
(847-382-0630) or E-mail:
Kay@LicensedArchitect.org

DEADLINES

August 13th, 2010:
Declaration
of Intent

Sept. 3, 2010:
Submission
of Entries

2009 Presidential Award Winner:

DeStefano Partners and SAMOO Architects & Engineers

Project: Garden 5- Tool