Licensed Architect

Vol. 7, No. 1 • 2003

ON THE FRONT COVER:

Rose Hulman Institute of Technology, White Chapel
Terre Haute, Indiana

Made possible by a generous gift from John White, a Rose-Hulman graduate and local Terre Haute businessman, the non-denominational chapel fulfills a long-term goal of creating a special place where the campus can gather in worship and where individual counseling can take place.

The President's Letter

March 2003

Dear ALA Members:

I am truly humbled to be greeting you as the new President of ALA. Following a legend like Don Erickson is never easy. All of us in ALA owe Don, the only President ALA has ever known, a huge debt for what he has accomplished for our organization. Thank you Don, I will strive to maintain your standard of excellence.

2003 has begun with some turmoil in our industry because of the economy and the world in general. Your Board of Directors is dedicated to staying on top of issues important to all of us. We further recognize the need to maintain our high quality CEU programs to both educate our professionals and satisfy the newly enacted licensing requirements. There is also much to be learned from our fine magazine.

Our membership has now topped 800 and is growing rapidly. We will continue to reach out to architects everywhere to collectively enhance the profession and provide the assistance they need and want.

Our future is bright!

Sincerely,

Steven H. Pate
President
